

June/July 2023 Newsletter

South Park Neighborhood Association:

Community Building, Support for Local Businesses, and Political Advocacy in Downtown Los Angeles

SPNA

SOUTH PARK NEIGHBORHOOD ASSOC.

June/July 2023 Newsletter

Save the Date for A Taste of South Park - 09/23/23

FRI, JUN 02

Save The Date...A TASTE OF SOUTH PARK event!

All South Park residents and businesses are invited to A Taste of South Park on Saturday, September 23. Mark your calendar - save the date!

Read More

New Cup in Town - Ideology Coffee

WED, MAY 31

Coffee + Magic = Life at Ideology Coffee, Now Open on Hope Street

“Life is a combination of magic and coffee” is the message on the wall at Ideology Coffee at 1115 S. Hope (formerly Nimbus which also had some magic). I agree. For me, coffee has always been magic -

Read More

Six New Dog Parklets - Thank You SPBID!

FRI, JUN 02

Tell Your Dog - Coming Soon – More Places to Go

It's no secret that there are probably almost as many dogs in South Park as there are residents! The South Park BID (Business Improvement District) has recognized this and is taking steps to help

Read More

What's New in the Neighborhood?

MON, JUN 05

Happenings around DTLA

Lots of news and new businesses in DTLA

Read More

The New Metro Regional Connector Will Open Soon!

WED, MAY 31

Quick Trip to Pasadena, Little

Tokyo, or Arts District, New Metro Line Opens Friday, June 16

Starting Friday, June 16, you can hop on a train at the Pico Station and exit in Pasadena or the Arts District or East LA without changing trains. Trains departing Pico Station will now continue

Read More

The Historic Mills Act is in Jeopardy!

SUN, JUN 04

Proposal Could Change LA's Historic Landscape and Housing

The richness and vibrancy of downtown LA stems from its historic architecture and reuse of this architecture as it mingles with the newly built modern skyscrapers. South Park has benefited greatly

Read More

Get to Know Your New DLANC Directors

MON, JUN 05

You Need to KNOW These People

Let me introduce you to Lawrence, Sarah, Debby, Lori, and Garrett – your newly elected South Park Directors on the Downtown Los Angeles Neighborhood Council (DLANC). They are your closest link

Read More

Let's Build a Community Gardening Program!

SAT, MAY 27

South Park Community Gardening: Why You Should be Interested

It started with Earth Day. How can YOU save the earth from climate changes and create a beautiful place to live? One way is to plant – plant a tree, plant flowers, plant anything green. Trees and

Read More

First Quarter Economic Report on DTLA - GREAT NEWS!

MON, JUN 05

Downtown LA Report Card: Conventions are Back, Hotels are Opening, Residential Occupancy is High

Highlights from the Downtown Market Report for the first quarter of 2023 shows a strong recovery of people visiting downtown as convention business continues to bounce back to pre-pandemic levels.

Read More

Click here to read more blog posts on our website.

Join us in making our neighborhood even better

- Governing Committee
- Communications and Marketing Committee
- Social Committee
- Political Advocacy Committee
- Neighborhood Facilitator Committee
- Budget and Operations Committee

Join one of our committees

www.spna-dtla.org

© spna-dtla special thanks to spna-dtla photographer : John Nilsson

grand ave., los angeles, ca, usa

Unsubscribe